Missouri Federation of Women’s Democratic Clubs Standing Rules and Procedures for the Woman of the Year Award

Standing Rule 4.

An award entitled Missouri Federation Democratic Woman of the Year shall be presented each year at the annual meeting to honor a woman who best exemplifies the traditions and ideals of the Federation and Democratic Party in the State of Missouri on a continuing basis through volunteerism.

a. Qualifications for nomination are: must be a member of her democratic club, and the Federation.
(explanation—per capita dues must be paid for this woman to the MFWDC)

b. The chair shall choose a committee of four (4) to select the recipient, and the chair shall be responsible for acquisition of the award and its presentation at the annual meeting’s banquet. Prior to the presentation of the award, all nominees shall be recognized and introduced at the annual meeting’s banquet.

Do not submit another version of this form. Consistency will guarantee that each member will receive equal consideration

This is a condensed version of the worksheet that the MFWDC Woman of the Year committee will be using to rank the submissions. I hope this helps as you write your application for your Woman of the Year.

Please rank in order the nominees based on their support, years of work and offices held in the state and Clubs.
