(a) No officer shall serve more than one (1) term in the same office, except members of the Democratic National Committee.

(b) All nominees must include in their nomination package verification of club and state federation membership. (See: Policies and Procedures Manual)

ARTICLE VIII: NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Sec. 7 The term of office shall be for two (2) years.

Sec. 8 To be eligible for election as Regional Director, the qualifications shall be the same as set forth in Article VIII Section 6. They shall be elected at the Regional Meeting held during the Annual Meeting of the Federation in odd numbered years. No Regional Director shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in office.

Sec. 9 There shall be selected to the Democratic National Committee in the year of the election of the President such number of DNC members as have been apportioned to the NFDW pursuant to the Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States. Each elected member shall serve for a term of four (4) years, beginning the day following the last day of the next National Party Convention and ending on the last day of the following National Party Convention or until a successor has been duly elected.

(a) Membership on the DNC: The President will serve as an automatic DNC member and serve on the DNC Executive Committee. In addition, two additional representatives, who are Federation members will be elected individually by a majority vote of the delegates to the Federation Convention to be held in the year of such election. This amendment to Article VIII, section 9(a) will become effective at the convention held in 2021. Any member who is eligible to run for this position may do so at that time. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the position. DNC members may be re-elected without term limits.

(b) Change in Office: In the event that the President is succeeded in office, the new President shall fill the remainder of the DNC Term.

(c) Vacancy in Membership: Vacancies in the office of DNC Member shall be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board duly informed and for such purpose by signed ballot. Such vacancies shall be filled no later than sixty (60) days after occurrence of same. Such action shall be reported at the first Annual Meeting of the NFDW following the appointment.

ARTICLE IX: COMMITTEES

Standing and Special Committees shall be appointed by the President with approval of the Executive Board. Standing Committee Chairs shall be appointed for one (1) year. Reappointment shall be at the option of the President with the consent of the Board.

Sec. 1 The organization shall have the following Standing Committees:

(a) Bylaws: Call for Amendments to the bylaws: The call for Bylaw Amendments shall be issued at convention and mailed within the quarter thereafter. All proposed amendments to the bylaws shall be sent to both the Chair of the Bylaws Committee and to the President no later than February 1st. All amendments either proposed by the members-at-large or the Bylaws Committee shall be mailed with the Call to the Annual Meeting. The committee shall review all proposed amendments and make recommendations to the Annual Convention with respect to their adoption.

(b) Legislative: This committee shall work with the DNC on pending and proposed legislation and shall disseminate information to the members, together with the written view of the committee, giving consideration to resolutions passed by the NFDW Resolutions Committee.

(c) Budget: This Committee shall present a proposed budget to the Executive Board for consideration at the first Executive Board Meeting. The Treasurer shall serve as a member of this committee.

(d) Finance: The committee shall plan and execute all fundraising with approval of the Executive Board. At least one (1) Vice President shall serve on this committee.

(e) Resolutions: Resolutions must be submitted to the Chair of the Resolutions Committee one (1) month prior to the Annual Meeting. In emergent situations, at the discretion of the Resolutions Committee, resolutions may be added after the one (1) month deadline. The Resolutions Committee shall present all resolutions to the Annual Meeting together with their recommendations. Resolutions signed by at least ten (10) delegates representing at least five (5) states may be received from the floor.

(f) History: The committee's purpose shall be to receive all NFDW records, including the Executive Board's records, publications, official correspondence, all committee records, publications and official correspondence for deposit at the organization's permanent storage site, the United States Library of Congress.

Additionally, all annual Convention reports shall be received at the Convention or within one month of the Convention either electronically or preferably in writing. The committee shall organize the collected materials according to the regulations of the Library of Congress and deposit these materials at the Library of Congress at least every four (4) years or two (2) administrative terms.

Five (5) members shall each serve staggered terms of two (2) years. Members from the Eastern and Midwest Regions shall elect their members in the even numbered years; the Southern and Western Regions shall elect in the odd numbered years at the Annual Convention. The President shall appoint the fifth member who shall serve a term of two (2) years.

The President shall choose the Chair who will serve as a liaison between the committee and the Board and will serve a term of two (2) years with the consent of the Board. Beginning in 2021, each outgoing president will be responsible for collecting the reports and giving them to the incoming president and the History Committee. At the end of that incoming president's term, which then Constitutes four years, the papers will be forwarded to the Library of Congress by the History Committee

(f) Public Relations: Shall consist of four (4) members, one from each region who shall be responsible for the submission of accurate information concerning their region for the web site as well as the Communicator newsletter and sending it to the webmaster for posting. Members shall be appointed by the President for a term of two (2) years that shall coincide with the election of officers.

(g) Audit: Shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the President to serve for a term of two (2) years that coincide with the election of officers. The committee is responsible for auditing the books and records of NFDW each fiscal year and reporting the findings to the Executive Board and to the membership as a whole at the Annual Convention. The Treasurer of NFDW shall submit the books and records to the Audit Committee within sixty (60) days of the close of the fiscal year under audit. The committee is also responsible for auditing the books and records of the Annual Convention. The Treasurer of the Annual Convention will submit a preliminary report to the Audit Committee within sixty days of the close of the Annual Convention and a complete report within ninety (90) days of the close of the Annual Convention. The findings of the audit results shall be given to the Executive Board by the beginning of the fiscal year following the Annual Convention and to the membership at the next Annual Convention.

Sec. 2 Reporting of Committees

Chairs of Standing and Special Committees shall be required to regularly provide written progress reports as requested by the Executive Board. A summative annual report is required from each Committee for the annual meeting.

Section 3: Decorum

While engaged in committee business, each person shall maintain a respectful decorum. The sense of decorum should be always maintained throughout all NFDW interactions between members.

ARTICLE X: FISCAL YEAR

The Fiscal Year shall be from January 1 to December 31.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

Sec. 1 These Bylaws may be amended at any Annual Meeting by a two-thirds vote, provided the proposed amendment has been submitted in writing to the Bylaws Chair and to the President by February 1st.

Sec. 2 All proposed amendments shall be included in the Call to the Annual Meeting of the NFDW.

ARTICLE XII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Where the Bylaws are silent, the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be the final authority in all matters.

ARTICLE XII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Should this organization be dissolved by appropriate action of its membership, and after all outstanding bills have been paid; the funds and other assets shall be given to the DNC to be used to promote and develop leadership of young women within the Democratic Party. In keeping with the NFDW purpose, these funds shall be used to sponsor an internship for a young woman at the DNC Headquarters. This directive shall continue until said funds are depleted.
